Foreword

Expansion—the keynote in a shrinking world—has left its mark on H.H.S. A new addition, an extra building here or there, crowded halls, more teachers, all these signs say "expansion" in a big way. The student notices these increases in a different light: to some—more friends in PAR study hall; to others—the new honor roll board. To the socially minded, the variety has become overwhelming and to others the only thing that has increased is the number of tests.

But expand we must for expansion is progress and is necessary.

So here we are, bigger and better than ever—this is

H.H.S.

MRS. LILLIAN COLBURN

A helping hand; a quick wit; often stern—but much loved for it; a cheery smile; a PAR recommendation; a piece of chalk, a ruler, a sliderule.

Piece these together and what forms? Not a geometric puzzle but a warm individual. It is for your dedication to us and teaching that we dedicate this 1964 EQUESTRIAN to you, MRS. COLBURN.

Best wishes and thank you,
The Senior Class of '64

Dedication

Best of luck always. Do a real swell job. Appreciate your remembering us. Have a good vacation. Drop a line sometime. Glad you're on our side. Keep up the good work around the A.A. meetings.

Administration

This year as in the past, by using good judgement and being what you thought best, you have inaugurated many policies necessary to keep the school running properly. The problems that accompany your job have been managed with little recognition given for your efforts. Therefore the class of '64 would like to say a big thank you for all your long hours of work.

Thank you, Administration.

Board of Education

On behalf of the student body, we would like to salute our Board of Education. We aren't always aware of the services they provide for the students, but this year the new wing, especially, is an outstanding example of the fine job they are doing. We would also like to express our appreciation to the parents and taxpayers without whose support the new wing would have been impossible.

TO THE CLASS OF 1964

Graduation time is the time for which we have all aimed—to which we have all looked forward. We now approach this time with a mixture of joy and sorrow. Joy in that you are now graduating and will progress to new fields of employment or education, and sorrow that you will be leaving us.

We are proud of your achievements as your Parents and Guardians must be at this wonderful time of graduation. I'm sure each and everyone of you will go far with your aspirations and I can only wish you well in your future endeavors. Your Faculty and your Board of Education join with me in these parting words. May our efforts in serving and guiding you over these years in high school prove to be of some measure of help to you in all that you will face in the years ahead.

Mike,
Best of luck always to one of the nicest and cutest Sophomore boys I know. Next year you'll be a Jr. I know you'll be one of the best. I'm certainly glad I got to know you, although you do have a few pawtes, which I won't bother mentioning because it's not your nature. I'm like that myself. Be a good little boy and see me if you could stop by to see me. I can't seem to remember who it is at this moment

IN MEMORIAM CLASS OF '64

by Leonard Files

On memories are built the things
Of love and fun and pain. And all
The things to come find foundation
In years past. And so to H.H.S.
We bid a fond adieu, but never fear,
Though years darken memories, we will remember you

And your hallowed halls through which we walked as freshmen
And sometimes ran to lunch but ne'er
Hurried to class. This was a new experience
And most take time to adjust.
The "new freedom" one might call it
And though not much transpired, we remember that year well.

"Wise fool" is called a sophomore, and
Though it seems a paradox, 'tis true. All things
Though foolish beyond reproach seemed sensible
To us. Sadie Hawkins had her eve and
Mild reprieve was dealt those honored "bonnes eleves"
Wiser we left that year for experience is knowledge.

Ah, now upperclassmen we, as juniors
Holy terror brought into the school, and
Sometimes not so holy were our actions. Stationery
Sales climbed to a peak, and suddenly the Whole world's struck with "Publicity Mad"
And none could e'er forget that spring eve "Sakoya-No-Sakotaki"

As seniors we have made our mark upon
The community. Over $9600 in magazines showed Salesmanship. November 22 will stay, not for
Our Senior Play (though good it was) for on that Day, humanity lost a leader. But the show
Must go on and on it went, "The Late Christopher Bean."

Only fools would swim that eve; but 'tis
Not a swim but Senior Prom "Mer d'Amour"
Sea of Love, and grand it was with many
A memory. Memories too, fear N.Y.C. when
'64 started painting (bright red was the hue) And
Honors, they were scattered far and near.

Regents, tests, report cards, a crowded
Dance, a quiet eve with the one and only—
All these memories and others too
Make up our contemplation as we look
Back upon our high school years, and truly say
'Tis a love experience never to be regained.

It has been a pleasure to have Prosper Philipp, our foreign exchange student from Uberlingen, Germany, visit our school this year. Prosper's visit was sponsored by the Horseheads Chapter of the American Field Service. We certainly hope Prosper enjoyed his stay here as much as we enjoyed having him.

Senior Band

In the traditional style of greatness established by its predecessors, this year's Senior Band under the superb direction of Mr. Wilson, displayed its talents at numerous concerts, assemblies, and other worthwhile functions. Concert

Seventy-one voices strong, the Concert Choir is the pride of the vocal music department at HHS. Membership in this organization is hard-earned honor to be both taken seriously and thoroughly enjoyed. Each day's forty minute agenda of lectures, jokes, and sometimes good music leaves no time to be spared. The year's music included classics, Negro spirituals, light popular tunes, religious music, and contemporary works of Randall Thompson.

Individual achievements were also outstanding. The All-State Festival during December boasted six Horseheads Choristers: Sue Ferraioli, April Hollenbeck, Linda Kurzenburger, Dan Jerome, Gary MacNany and Leonard Files.

FIRST ROW: J. Farr, P. Blackhall, C. Bell, L. Allen, M. Brasted, T. White, P. Phillips. SECOND ROW: S. Howard, C. Mayes, C. Faille, R. Collson, J. Borden, L. Haff, J. Kihlstrom. THIRD ROW: A. Choir

Several outstanding vocalists other than these six performed at various concerts throughout the year.

Credit is due also to the officers led by James Stayer. Assisting him were Jon Rowe, Vice-president; Sue Ferrioli and Linda Kurzenburger corresponding and recording secretaries; and Kristen Banfield, treasurer. Sharon Lummaka was accompanist.

A good choir cannot exist without a good conductor and in this respect the vocal department is very fortunate. The applause and congratulations given the choir go first and foremost to "Mr. C." through whose guidance and intricate methods of inspiration the Concert Choir enjoyed a commendable and rewarding year.

This year's Senior Choir was given an advantage over other choirs in past years. Beginning in January, each member met once a week with Mr. Crupi to study fundamental vocal techniques. Five sessions a week are required to master the more difficult music and to earn a full credit for the year's work. Accompanied by Janice Fisher and Anita Whirt, the choir presented its music at the annual vocal concerts in March and May.

Future Teachers of America

The F.T.A. is an organization to encourage students interested in the teaching profession. Club members were given the opportunity to view several different aspects of teaching through guest speakers, college visitations, and the practice-teaching program.

After each marking period, the members ushered for different teachers on Parent's Night. The club also sponsored a record hop after a basketball game as a fund raising activity. This club completed a very successful year under the direction of Mr. Along.

F.N.A.

A little girl with polio smiles and cuddles her new stuffed kitten. An elderly crippled woman is given attention and a word of good cheer. A magazine makes a boy with a broken hip smile. Incidents such as these make a girl glad she joined the F.N.A. and is able to help others, at either of our local hospitals, as a candy-striper. Juniors and Seniors in F.N.A. who spent 20 hours at the hospital in this rewarding way, and spent an additional 10 hours in the school nurse's office, received their pins at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, held in the spring. Bandage scissors were presented the girls who had been previously presented their pins.

The Club had a Christmas party and exchanged gifts that were given to the children at the hospitals. They also dressed dolls for the Arctic League and contributed money to the Arctic League and the Foreign Student Fund. A dance was held later in the year.

The Club held monthly meetings, usually inviting a guest to speak on the many possibilities in a medical career. Advised by Mrs. Dillmore, the officers were: President, Bonnifer Smith; Vice-President, Susan Cramer; Secretary, Debbie Fowler; Treasurer, Susan Meeker.

The Horseheads Future Farmers organization forms one of the 300 chapters in New York State which have banded together in a state association. This, in turn, is affiliated with the national organization.

The F.F.A. was formed to develop rural agricultural leadership and each member gained experience from the program of activities that was held throughout the year. All meetings were carried on according to Robert's Rules of Order. Club members could also participate in sectional speaking contests in the F.F.A.

The club's adviser was Mr. West.

The Audio-Video organization is considered one of the most important service clubs in the school. Evidence of this is shown by their providing music for dances, showing movies, and giving valuable assistance during plays and assemblies.

This year's officers have included co-presidents Tim Wade and Leonard Files; secretary, Kathy Kieffer; and treasurer, Elliot R. Blauvelt.

Led by President, James Horton; Vice-president, John Strader, and Secretary, Darlene Hallett, the Club formed at the year's beginning and new members were quickly recruited. During their ninth period meetings these new members were instructed in the use of various machines by the older members and their adviser, Mr. Newlin. Showing movies during the noon hour and a social function were some of the year's activities.

Debate Club

The flowery oratory of debate filled the halls of H.H.S. as the Debate Club went into action. Debates were held about every two weeks among themselves, and a few inter-school debates were held. Once a month a business meeting was conducted by President Gary McNaney; Vice-president, Fred Shaw; Secretary, Nancy Dudley; and Treasurer, Linda Walker. Once again, thanks to Mr. Callahan, the cry of "debate" can be heard.

9th Grade Librarians

Indispensable to the junior high library is a group of about twenty ninth grade girls who work every period of the day to keep the library in good running order. After a brief training period during which they learn basic library techniques, the girls are ready to assist their adviser, Mrs. Slicer, with stamping, slipping, and shelving books, and doing all the little jobs that make a good library.

National Ho

This year the National Honor Society, under its new adviser, Miss Callihan, surged through another successful year. President Pat Benyo led the group through two dances, a candy selling campaign and the introduction of a discussion session to be held monthly. Other officers were: vice-president, Arthur Devenport; secretary, Susan Meeker; and treasurer, Carol Vaughan. As the sponsoring body for the Foreign Exchange program the society led a campaign for the funds needed for this worthwhile endeavor. Initiation was held in March for those students who had maintained a 90% average and displayed the qualities of citizenship, leadership and character. Success spells out the 1963-64 year for the Honor Society.

Library Club

These girls were responsible for making the library a haven for the student who really wanted to study. They were introduced to library fundamentals as sophomores and thereafter supervised scrupulously by their advisor, Mrs. Boggs. Each girl was expected to fulfill certain requirements of this orientation course, from complete knowledge of reference tools to problems encountered by a librarian.

Every Wednesday the club met and discussed various subjects with Mrs. Boggs, and once a month, a picnic was held. Their greatest reward for all their efforts came when Mrs. Boggs cooked a delicious spaghetti dinner for them.

We really must hand it to the members of R. R. for a fine show. Under their advisor, Mrs. Vater, the reporters displayed outstanding news media for all our entertainment. Usher's Club

Horseheads has always been benefited by the work of the Usher's Club. This year was no exception. As in past years, the girls ushered at assembly programs as well as at special occasions. At commencement the ushers again formed the honor guard for the graduation processional.

Under the leadership of their adviser, Miss Mezur, the following elected officers served: President, Judy Dalrymple; vice-president, Ruth Fox; secretary, Marilyn Furnkranz; and treasurer, Bonnie White. The girls held a candy sale in early fall. From the proceeds of this sale the girls prepared for the Press Club Carnival and also donated money to the American Field Service.

German Club

With the addition of the German language to our language department, Mrs. Murphy and the students taking the course, formed a German Club. Officers were Pat Benyo—president, and Roger Sleeper—treasurer and secretary. Getting its real start in January, the club engaged in various activities, including movies, newsreels, and German lectures. Observance of typical German holidays was probably the most enjoyable part of the club's program.

The Horseheads Spanish Club is composed of second, third and fourth year Spanish students, who are interested in going beyond the limits of classroom work in the better understanding of the language. They are interested to learn more about the real Spanish and Latin people, their ways of living, and their customs.

With Mrs. Maloney acting as adviser the club elected Marty Baldwin president; Larry Casey, vice-president; June White, secretary; and Beth Randolph, treasurer.

The club meets once a month. At these meetings they have enjoyed a speaker who has visited Mexico, Miss Annabelle Smith, the Chemung County's 1963 Ambassador to Spain, and the exchange student from Ecuador. The group also sponsored a school dance, and had a banquet.

Latin Club

After a shaky beginning this fall, this language club became one of the most active organizations. Leading off the year with a dance made their financial position secure and made possible the Roman Banquet they held Saturday, March 14. Regular meetings were held as they planned for their trip to the Latin Club's convention at Chittenango on April 18. The club, under the direction of Mrs. Chrystowski, serves a double purpose—to increase understanding of the French cultural life and fluency in "la langue francaise." To achieve this goal, the club had several social gatherings throughout the year.

Under the direction of Mrs. Drew, the G.A.A. members kept busy working on their letters. The girls worked on the points for their letters by participating in such sports as bowling, volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Under the leadership of their officers, President, Marsha Bly; Vice-President, Cheryl Allen; Secretary, Carol Vaughan, and Treasurer, Sherry Gray, the girls held their annual initiation to bring in new members. They also held a banquet for all members and had a booth at the Press Club Carnival.

Varsity "H" Club

Athletics play an important part in the rounded curriculum of H.H.S. and therefore it is only natural that the athletes of our school form a Varsity Club. Ski Club

Greek Peak had quite a workout this year with the addition of the ski-club members to its normal trails and tows. Plans were made for 5 sessions with lessons and skiing down the famous hill. The club also held two dances during the year to support the icy excursions. Officers of the club were Anne Langley—President, Judith Langley—Vice-president, Elaine Blades—secretary and Leslie Swietzer—treasurer. Mr. Emerson acted as advisor for the club.

Mike,
Best of luck in your future years at H-H-S. Always remember all the fun we had. I'm glad we have been such good friends except for that one incident that is completly forgotten as far as I'm concerned. Always stay as sweet as you are and don't ever change. Be good to the "lucky" one and have fun next year in your Junior year, if you have as much fun as I have had you will know that it should've been worth it. Just think next year you'll be a big "Senior" it sure doesn't seem possible does it. Well be good and if ya can't be good be careful and if ya can't be careful ya better watch out.

Gee I wonder what mr. west would doIf He caught us trading yearbooks in his studyhall? Well mike it has been nice knowing you these year (especially at the dances). well next year you may be lucky enough to get on the varsity football squad instead of playing on the jr. squad but your going to have to be really lucky. to have ten this summer cause This fall will bring all that hard blocking and tackling (which for you I know is a strain. Take it cool and If your lucky you might see me this summer.

For the second year in a row, the Horseheads Blue Raiders experienced a very successful football season. Even though we lost the services of Ed Kowalski, who broke his ankle during the third game of the season, we continued behind a really strong team effort. We beat Edison for the second year in a row. This gave us a tie for first place in the S.C.L. with Edison.

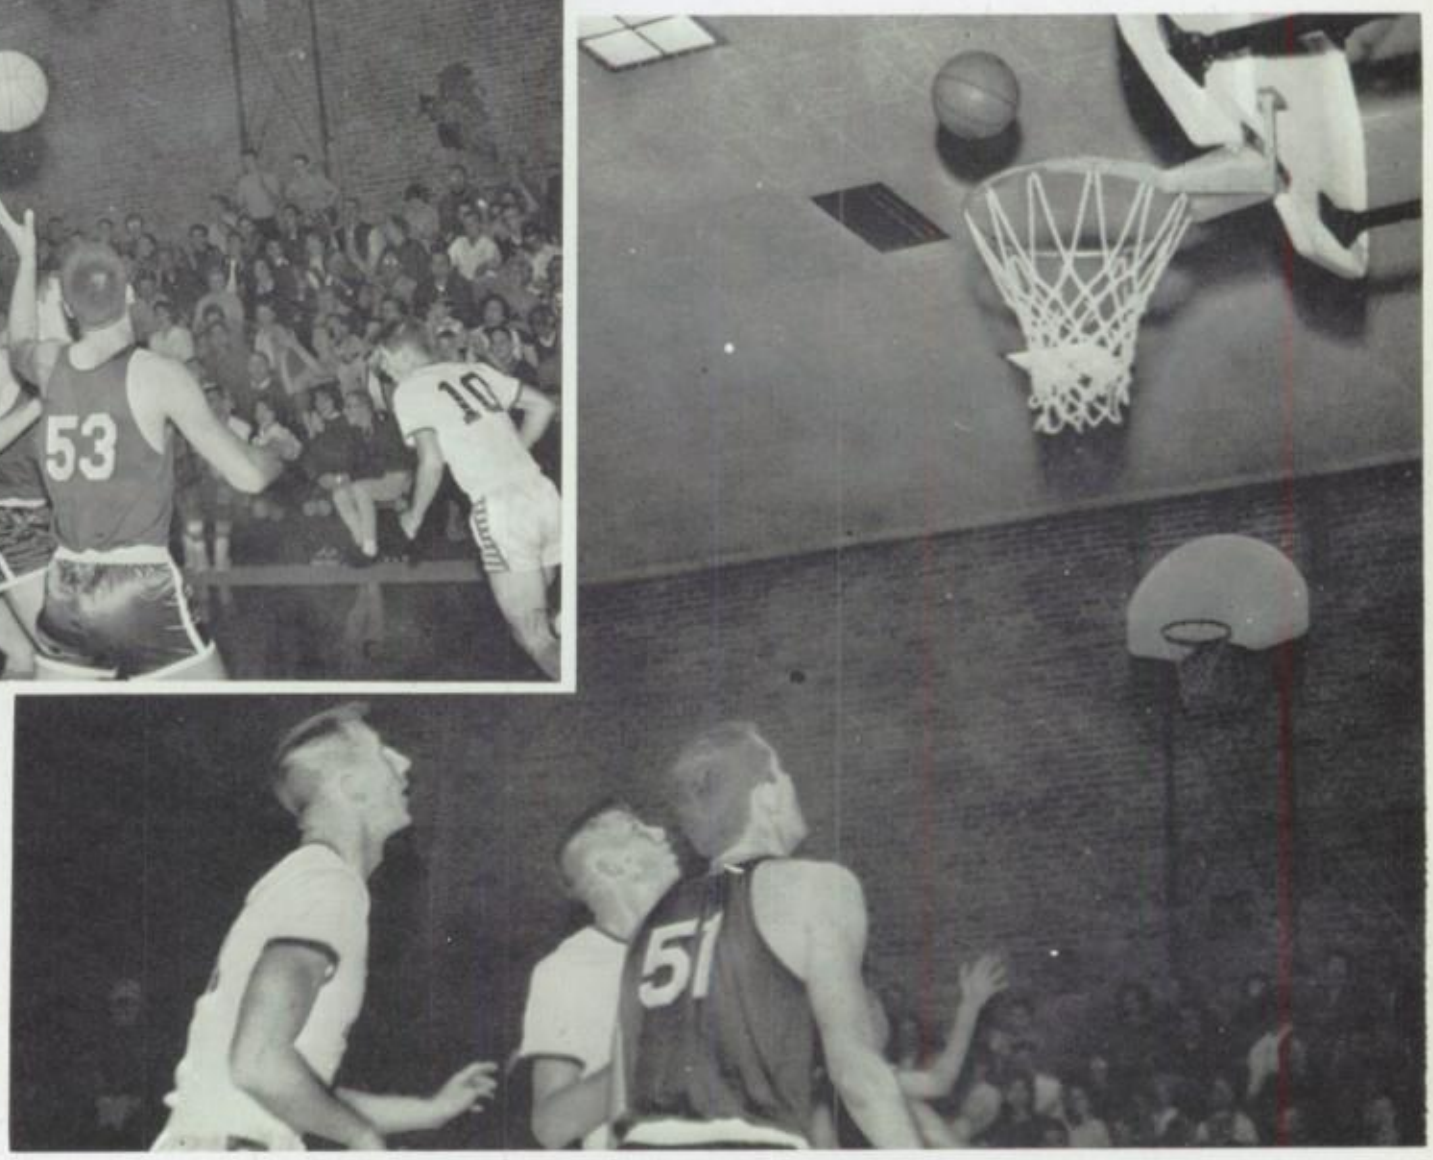
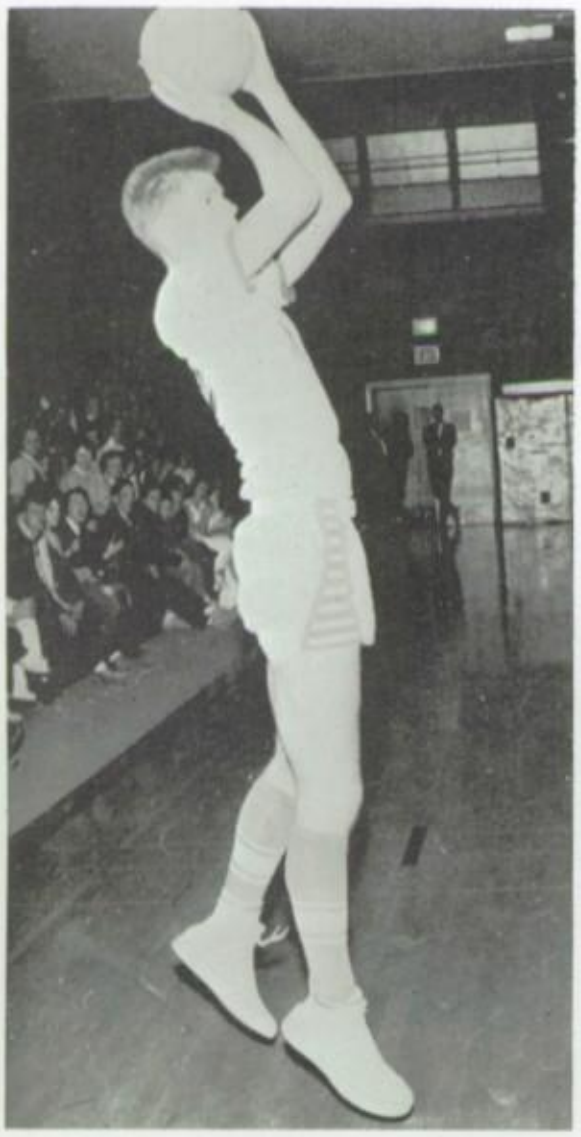
And Southside leads by a head . . .

And away we go!



Well . . . . . will it or won't it?



The Horseheads Blue Raiders enjoyed a real fine season again this year. In the last three years, we have won slightly more than 75% of our games. We had a real slow start this year by losing our first five games and seven out of the first eight. Then we showed the mark of a real champion. We won twelve straight games before losing a close game to Binghamton North. We won the S.C.L. for the second year in a row. Next year should prove to be a real big year for the Raiders with Jon Rowe, Doug Wiley, and Walt Berlin back.

H.S.S. ..... 51 T.A.E. 38

The last few years have been tremendous for Horseheads High School basketball teams. The junior varsity beat Edison 51-38 in the playoff for the league title which proves that Horseheads has the best team in the S.C.L. at the present and will, or at least should have, next year. The J.V.'s had a very strong bench which helped during games when the first string players fouled out.

The wrestling squad posted a 10-5 record this season. We started off with a bang by winning our first five matches. We managed to break even in our last ten matches by winning five. Most of the boys in the lower weights were young and inexperienced this year but they should be good next year. It will be difficult to replace Clark and Moonshein. Over all, it looks like the Raider Matmen will have a very successful season next year.

The H.H.S. golf team looked very impressive last year. Their won-loss record did not show their true caliber. They suffered quite a few close losses which will tend to make a big difference in any team's record.

The leading point-getters were Gary Thrasher, Bob Hurd, Kipp Palmer, and Tom Noble. The return of Gary Thrasher and Tom Noble should help us to have a far better season this coming year.

Tennis '63

The tennis team, although newly organized, did surprisingly well and posted a 6-4 record under the new coach, Mr. Callahan. They scored double wins against Southside and Watkins while suffering only one double loss, that to E.F.A. Sophomores John Houghtaling and Doug McClelland did very well and should help our team to have another winning record this year.

Baseball '63

The Raiders baseball team enjoyed one of their finest seasons in recent years. We triumphed over five of our first eight opponents but ran into some difficulty and won only one of the last five games.

Ed Kowalski and Dave Benedict added power to our hitting and fielding. Our mound crew was sparked by Hank Todd and Jim Stayer. Hank fired a no-hitter against Watkins Glen the first time we played them.

The Raider trackmen had a very successful year last year, winning four out of five SCL meets, losing by three points to Waverly. We came within four points of winning the SCL meet for five years in a row. Our 880 relay team made up of Tom Lederer, Tom Carlson, John Knapp, and Jim Coats was undefeated in all of the SCL meets. John Lewien was named "Trackman of the year," Roger Sleeper set a Southern Counties League record in the two mile run. His time 10 min. 50 seconds.

Boys' State

In the last week of June, 1963, six H.H.S. students went to the campus of Colgate University to participate in the annual Boys' State Convention. Once there they spent one week learning the "how's" and "why's" of city, county and state government. Participating in this memorable event were: Roger Sleeper, Leonard Files, Carlyle Fox, Jeff Doran, Jay Bauer, and Fulton Keagle.

Youth County

In the spring of 1963 "Youth County" was held by the American Legion for the purpose of educating as many high school students as possible in the workings of city, village, town, and county government.

Upon arrival, the over two-hundred Juniors from the area schools were divided not only into the three parties—Nationalist, Federalist, and Independent—but also into many villages, towns, etc. where the lesser elections were held. County elections were preceded by primaries, selections of platforms, and finally vigorous campaigns by all. Voting machines were used in a secret ballot for the elected officials. Following the election each official learned more about his particular station. Fun was had by all in attendance at this educational conference.

Syracuse Citizenship Conference

In April, several students attended the Syracuse Citizenship Conference at Syracuse University for a day of speech making and discussions. Students in attendance voted for the winners of the awards which were full tuition scholarships at the University. In closing the day Senator Keating talked to the assembly and it was announced that Horseheads had two winners: Jeff Doran and Jim Sherman. Other students in attendance were: Marsha Bly, Andrea Ungvarsky, Dick Bennett, Robert Millspaugh, Ronald Porter, and Neel Bennett.

Junior Rotarians

In the fall of 1963, seven Senior boys were designated as Junior Rotarians. These boys were selected by the guidance counselors and principal for being outstanding in their particular fields. Selected were: Ed Kowalski, Jeff Doran, Neel Bennett, Leonard Files, Art Devenport, Dan Jerome, and Mike Wickham. These Seniors shall each attend and be the honored guest at one month of Rotarian meetings where they shall learn first hand the workings of a service club.

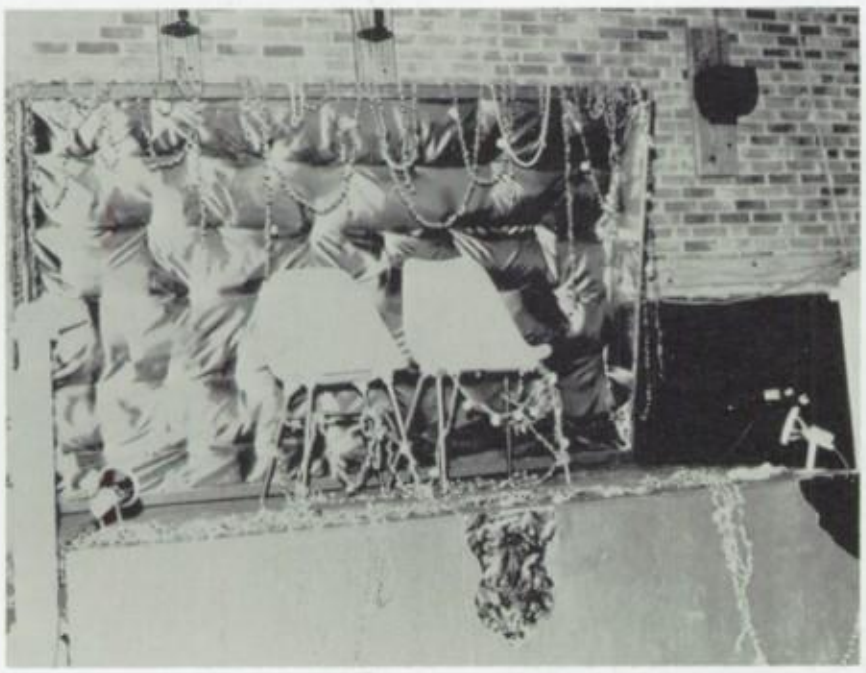
Manlius Math Tournament

If you feel queasy at the sight of a right angle and pi upsets you, then Manlius Math isn't for you. This year a multitude of students again tried out for the contest. Only eight students were chosen to compete. Two students are selected from each high school grade and sent to Manlius for competition in the annual tournament. Those who went felt the great honor of being among top Math students in the school.

Mer de L'amour



"Mer de L'amour," the French phrase for "Sea of Love," was the theme of this year's Senior Ball. The gymnasium was converted into an underwater scene. The Seniors really outdid themselves by including a sunken ship, divers, seaweed, and all the wet trimmings that go along. Queen, Jane Rundell, and king, Jerry Tompkins, ruled over their underwater domain from a satin-lined treasure chest.

Co-chairmen Frank Sweet and Bonna Butcher managed all the affairs. Everyone had a swell time, but we can't help wondering if anyone got water logged.

Junior Prom

QUEEN CAROL and KING EDWARD

On the evening of April 26, 1963, Sakura No Sakutoki—Cherry Blossom Time—was presented by the class of '64. Guests were immediately transported to an extravagant Japanese garden in the mysterious Orient, where the odor of cherry blossoms filled the air. A richly gardened Pagoda was the scene of the exciting coronation of King Edward Kowalski and Queen Carol Hopper who reigned supreme over the Eastern paradise. The haunting strains of the Blue Tones lent enchantment to this evening. The memories seem to linger on, reminding us of this never-to-be-forgotten night, OUR JUNIOR PROM.

I said that it went there!

Play

Among the top entertainment of the year was the play, "The Late Christopher Bean," put on by the Senior Class. The play, under the direction of Mr. Van Houtan, was a comedy about an artist living near Boston. The cast began work early in October to have the play ready for presentation by November 22 and 23. One can not help wondering about the irony of the title to the tragedy of the day. Scheduled for that ill-fated day, November 22, nevertheless, the "show must go on."

The class of 1963 presented the play, Ten Little Indians, May 24 and 25. Mr. Van Houten directed the very successful production.

The setting of the play was in the living room of a home on Indian Island, off the coast of Devon, England. The plot centered around the murders of guest to that house.

It was beautifully performed, and was enjoyed by all who attended the performance.

Well, another year has passed and exam time has rolled around again. It's been real nice knowing ya this year. We've had fun & hope to have lots more! I don't know how to say this, but last night I said I would tell ya, so here goes — Well, the initials are "S. L." At least this way, I won't be embarrassed by coming right out and telling you to your face. Hope ya don't get mad cause I'm taking up almost a whole page, but I had to write ya a lot & I couldn't find any place else big enough! O.K.? Well, be a good boy & take care of all those girls of yours — (especially me) and I sure hope to see ya this summer. When ya get that car, don't forget to come up and take me for a ride. Also, don't forget to call me if you're in need for a date! (9-9407) Well, Max, see ya later & take care of yourself & be good if ya can. Lots of luck on your finals & hope to see ya as a Junior. If ya try, you can make it! O.K.?
